My dear Mr. ...
I have received
your kind & too
flattering letter with
the proofs & type
writing - I have taken a good deal
of pains (being rather weak to day)
make a few cor rections & sent it to
Mr. Corwell I hope

 I like your title
 very much —
 I don't quite agree
 with you about
 authorities, I think

a word or two, claim
 my the authority
 of Hooker & Millon
 & others cannot feel
 strong there what
 is said; & even to
 interest the reader.
 we ought to have
 quoted Kant, as authority for Reason & Understanding
 but S.T.C. will

perhaps do as well.
I hope the article
won't seem very
dull or high flying -
to your mother or
teachers - I must
hope they will find
it awfully interesting

Thanks for your kind
letter wishes so much I reciprocate to you I have a vivid recollection
of you on my sofa
by which I am writing

Dear Mr Mason

Here is a letter from W. James - We think it will be much better to have the Smt's meeting - but not to give a nucleus
of an audience, & we

Dear Mr. Maom

Here is the paper.

Please let me hear,
if you like it - and

if so, get it in print,

or as to let me have

it back in a week

for our meeting.

I must get the

one chart, illustrative of the 16th century, one here, as it need to be drawn & then
done by some person.

It may be better
to wait for the next number.

my relationship with old - and had a great deal of (Maggie) business to attend to, but I did not neglect the Parents Review, as you see

Yours sincerely

It would be best to return the cheque I think.
